

SOCIAL EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

MONDAY—
Miss Marie Ballentine Entertains Informally.

TUESDAY—
Outdoor Circle Luncheon.
Miss Henrietta Schwartz Complimented.

WEDNESDAY—
Dinner at the Country Club at which Capt. and Mrs. Frederick Phisterer are hosts.
Ensign and Mrs. Frederick Lowry Hosts at a Lunch Party.

FRIDAY—
Capt. and Mrs. William Cochran's Dinner.
Miss Peggy Center a Hostess.

SATURDAY—
Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Cartwright Entertain Informally.
The Misses von Holt Hostesses at a Picnic at Waimea.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Spaulding, Jr., entertain.
Mr. and Mrs. Howard Spaulding, Jr., who have been spending a part of their honeymoon in Honolulu, entertained delightfully at dinner at the Pleasanton, where they have been guests, on Monday evening. An attractive centerpiece of red and white flowers interspersed with maidenhair fern and tied with tulle of the same shade of red adorned the table, at which covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Dusenberg, Lieut. and Mrs. Kirby Crittenden, Mrs. Crim, Mrs. Girard, Mr. George Butz and Mr. Walter Dusenberg. A Hawaiian quintet furnished music during dinner and later for dancing. When the party tired of dancing at the hotel they motored out to Kahala to the Isenberg home and danced there.

The von Holt Sisters Entertain.

Responding to a unique invitation to a picnic along the Waimea beach on Saturday afternoon last, a number of the younger set enjoyed the hospitality of the Misses Mary and Hilda von Holt. Motoring over in the late afternoon the guests went swimming and after a delightful supper returned to Honolulu by moonlight. There were present Miss Bud Carter, Miss Phoebe Carter, Miss Harriet Hatch, Miss Enid Sutton, Miss Alice Cooke, Miss Thelma Murphy, Miss Anor Hall, Miss Peggy Center, Miss Betty Case, Miss Ethel Glade, Messrs. Bert Clark, Ronald von Holt, Bob White, Ensign A. S. Walton, Philip Spaulding, Francis Brown, Dickson Nott, Frederick Wichman and others.

Returned to California from Honolulu.
Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fisher and two daughters, Doreen and Natalie, have returned from Honolulu, where they spent several weeks. It is understood that the Fishers will not remain in Honolulu this season, but that they will make a trip to South America or the Philippines to be gone about six months. In their absence they will leave the beautiful home on Highland avenue.—Los Angeles Times.

Attend Navy Belle's Wedding.
Numbers of Oakland, Berkeley and San Francisco people went up to Mare Island yesterday to attend the picturesque wedding of Miss Marion Brooks to Dr. Ernest O. J. Eyring which was celebrated at 4 o'clock in the afternoon in the navy yard chapel, with Rev. J. T. O'Brien officiating. The ceremony was witnessed by several hundred guests, including representatives from nearly every leading army and navy family of the nearby posts, and was unusually pretty, the predominant colors, mauve and yellow, providing a distinctive background for the more brilliant hues of many uniforms and the bride's conventional white gown. Miss Martha Tuttle of New York was maid of honor and Lieut. Daniel Gardner assisted as best man.

After a ceremony a large reception was held at the commodious quarters of Paymaster and Mrs. Jonathan Brooks, where only cool white flowers and greenery were used as decorations. The bride, who has been one of the most popular belles in the navy set, and the groom, are both members of families that have been connected for generations with the service.—Oakland Tribune.

To Kamehameha on Horseback.

The baseball game between the officers of the town posts and the officers of Fort Kamehameha, which is to take place at the latter post this afternoon, has interested a number of the ladies of Fort Shafter to the extent that they rode to Kamehameha on horseback this morning. The party was invited to the out of town post for luncheon and shortly before 10 o'clock they started for the country in chic riding costumes and mounted on some of the best of the army horses. Among those who made the trip were Mrs. "Tod" Sloan, Miss Anna Halloran, Miss Catherine Lenihan, Miss Dorothy Harker and Miss Elizabeth Rosenbaum.

Off to the Mainland.
When the China left for the mainland on Tuesday there was a large cortege of the service folk at the dock to say aloha to Miss Maggie Mae Richardson, who has spent the summer at Fort Shafter. Miss Richardson made numerous friends at the post who entertained for her in a number of charming ways.

Acquisitions to Honolulu's Social Set.
The Lurline, arriving here Tuesday, brought among other passengers Miss Madeline Madsen and Miss Dagmar Madsen, two Oakland society girls who are to make their home in Honolulu. Prior to their departure for the islands the Madsen girls were entertained extensively by their many friends in the Bay City. And again at the departure of the steamer there was a large contingent of Oakland's younger set at the pier to bid them bon voyage.

Miss Gladys Lee Holland of Los Angeles, who is visiting in Honolulu with Miss Irma Mackenzie of Boston. They will voyage from here to the Orient.

To many minds the expression "beautifying Honolulu" has practically the same significance as "painting the lily," for Honolulu is already beautiful; it was "born so," and it is but for Honoluluans to keep it beautiful and to remove the things which the hand of man has erected to detract from the natural beauties of the Paradise City.

The ladies of the Outdoor Circle worked with unceasing vigor and have given many valuable hours to this work. Their only compensation is the knowledge that they have made it a cleaner and more attractive city. Though there have been many stumbling blocks in the way of the circle's removing many of the unsightly fences and other defacements, this fall the ladies are going to take up their work with the same enthusiasm they have displayed in former years.

On Tuesday the executive committee and chairmen of the various section committees were invited to luncheon at the Country Club, where plans were discussed whereby the work they have already started can be finished. Committees reported on the work of the past year and submitted plans for the coming year. Those who were present at the luncheon were Mrs. Frederick J. Lowrey, Mrs. Arthur G. Smith, Mrs. A. E. Murphy, Mrs. W. L. Moore, Mrs. Frances Day, Mrs. C. S. Holloway, Mrs. W. L. Emory, Mrs. C. T. Wilder, Mrs. Edward Dekum, Mrs. A. P. Taylor, Mrs. Charles Atherton, Mrs. John Lane, Mrs. F. W. Klebahn, Mrs. William Williamson, Mrs. L. A. Thurston, Mrs. A. N. Campbell, Mrs. R. O. Matheson, Mrs. Isaac Cox, Mrs. F. E. Blake, Mrs. Charles Crane, Mrs. T. J. King, Mrs. Ferdinand Linham, Mrs. J. M. Dowsett, Mrs. H. H. Webb, Mrs. M. F. Prosser and Mrs. J. Walter Jones.

"Honolulu Society Takes City by Storm."

"Honolulu society has quite taken us by storm this week, many prominent and wealthy Honoluluans having arrived to take in the sights of the Jewel City. Among the most prominent citizens of our island possessions who are here are Mr. and Mrs. Francis Gay, Jr. Mr. Gay is a wealthy sugar grower of Hawaii, who owns one of the finest homes in Honolulu. Mrs. Gay is always exquisitely groomed. The Gays are at present sojourning at Byron Hot Springs, but expect to return to the St. Francis again for a few days before returning to the Paradise of the Pacific.

Engagement in Washington.

Local service folk will be interested in the announcement of the engagement of a popular young society woman of Washington society and Lieut. Benjamin F. Tilley, U. S. N. The Washington Post says of the engagement:

"Several interesting engagements have been announced this week. Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Buchanan have announced the engagement of their daughter, Harriet, to Benjamin F. Tilley, Jr., U. S. N., son of the late Rear Admiral B. F. Tilley, U. S. N., and Mrs. Tilley of Annapolis, Md. The wedding is to take place some time this fall. Miss Buchanan came out in society two years ago and is much admired, being one of the most graceful dancers in the younger set."

To Make Her Debut At the White House.

It has been some time since a young girl has made her debut in society at the White House, but this winter Washington society is looking forward to the "coming out party" which is to be given for Miss Alice Wilson at the capitol.

Miss Wilson is a very charming young woman, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wilson and a niece of the President. She is a favorite with the young people and her friends, many of whom made formal debuts last season, are planning parties for her. It has been rumored that the affair which will formally introduce the young belle to society is to be an elaborate function to which many invitations are to be issued.

Miss Peggy Center a Hostess.

Miss Peggy Center was hostess on Friday evening at a delightful moonlight luncheon party. The party started at about eight o'clock and cruised around Diamond Head and returned at about 11 o'clock for supper. Chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Lodge there were Miss Betty Case, Miss Harriet Hatch, Miss Enid Sutton, Miss Anor Hall, Miss Mary von Holt, Miss Hilda von Holt, Miss Peggy Center, Dickson Nott, Mr. H. Morris, Ensign Elroy Vanderkloot, Lieut. Kelly, Vivian Dyer, Francis Brown, Bob White.

Mrs. Carter Harrison In Southern California.

Mrs. Carter Harrison, Miss Edith Ogden Harrison and Miss Gertrude McCarthy, who visited in Honolulu recently, have been heard from in Southern California. The Harrisons spent a few days at the exposition and about San Francisco, then en route to their Chicago homes they stopped at Los Angeles, where they have been guests at the Potter. During their brief stay in the southern city Mrs. Harrison and the two beautiful girls who make up her party were entertained extensively.

About the Christian de Guignes.

From Southern California comes the following word of the Christian de Guignes who visited here last year: "Mr. and Mrs. Christian de Guignes who have been centers of many gay society events during the past few months, have returned to their San Mateo home until September 20."

Miss Katharine Schmidt, popular society girl of York, Pa. She is visiting with her sister, Mrs. Cowell Fauntleroy, wife of Maj. Fauntleroy, and stopping at the Pleasanton.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Gay on the Mainland.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Gay, who have been visiting in San Francisco, have attracted much attention in mainland society. A recent edition of a San Francisco paper says:

Dinner at Naval Station.

Public Works Offices Parks of the naval station, Pearl Harbor, and Mrs. Parks entertained at dinner on Tuesday evening at their home at the naval station in honor of Admiral Boush, commandant, and Mrs. Boush, their guests being Governor Pinkham, Admiral and Mrs. Boush, Madame Clinton, Miss Boush, Miss Gray, Miss Fraser, Col. Cooper, Surgeon-General, N. G. H., Civil Engineer Smith and Civil Engineer Burrell.

Popular Society Girl to Visit Here.

Miss Elizabeth Sears, who has been visiting Mrs. Preston W. Smith for several days, has been charmingly entertained recently by a large coterie of friends. Miss Sears has been living in New York for the past few years, previous to which she made her home with her brother, Lieut. Robert Sears, at Vancouver Barracks. Lieut. and Mrs. Sears (Marguerite Hume) are now stationed in Honolulu, and Miss Sears left Thursday for San Francisco, from whence she will sail for Honolulu for the winter.

During her visit here she has been entertained by a number of prominent matrons, including Mrs. Smith, who gave a small tea for her houseguest Saturday afternoon; the same evening Mrs. R. A. Leiter was hostess for a dinner party at the Waverley Country Club. Miss Elizabeth Creadick presided at a pretty dinner Wednesday night in her honor. Mrs. H. C. Wortman also entertained for her with a charming informal tea, and Miss Isabelle Gauld presided at a small luncheon Thursday, the guests in practically all instances being only old friends of the visitor.

Miss Sears also shared honors with Miss Katherine Ecob of New York Wednesday, when Mrs. Joseph N. Teal presided at a luncheon, the guests numbering nine.

Miss Ecob also was one of the much-feted visitors during the week, her sister, Mrs. Harold M. Sawyer, with whom she is visiting, giving a charming tea for her Tuesday afternoon. About 75 matrons and maids called during the hours of 4 to 6. The first hour the tea table was presided over by Mrs. D. P. Thompson, Mrs. Joseph N. Teal, Mrs. Leroy Parker, and Mrs. H. C. Wortman. The second hour, the following matrons took charge of the samovars: Mrs. Preston W. Smith, Mrs. Louis H. Tarbley and Mrs. Fletcher Linn.

Receiving with Mrs. Sawyer and her sister were Miss Elizabeth Sears and Mrs. E. T. Allen. Assisting about the rooms were Misses Genevieve Church, Mary Meldrum, Elizabeth Creadick and Fay Nichols.—Portland Oregonian.

Mrs. Floyd Emmans Complimented At a Bridge Party by Mrs. Bolton.

Mrs. Floyd Emmans was the inspiration for a pretty bridge party given by Mrs. T. L. Bolton at her home on Monday afternoon. Pink and white was the color scheme chosen by the hostess and was carried out effectively to the remotest detail. Suspended from the chandelier in the dining room was a huge basket of Boston lace fern in the center of which stood a dainty pink butterfly fashioned of tulle. Graceful pink streamers were extended from the butterfly to cut-glass vases filled with pink carnations. In the center of the table stood a basket filled with forget-me-nots. Pink carnation leis were given to each of the guests.

Among Mrs. Bolton's guests were: Mrs. Floyd Emmans, Mrs. Emmans, Mrs. Greene, Mrs. Clifford Jones, Mrs. John Maher, Mrs. Winn, Mrs. French, Mrs. Andrus, Mrs. A. S. Prescott, Mrs. L. H. Underwood, Mrs. Henry Chipley, Miss Edith Galtfield, Mrs. S. D. Barnes, Mrs. Arthur Spitzer, Mrs. Lawrence Clarke, Mrs. Charles Hall, Miss Myrtle Schuman, Miss Florence Hoffman, Mrs. Cyril Hoops, Miss Judson, Mrs. Charles Crane, Miss Knowles, Mrs. Bartlett, Mrs. Tackabury and others.

As a guest prize, Mrs. Emmans received a pink hug-pillow with a beautiful hand embroidered cover and a like prize was awarded to Miss Edith Galtfield for the highest score. Two dainty glove handkerchiefs were given to Miss Florence Hoffman for the second prize. Mrs. Andrus captured the booby prize, which was one glove handkerchief.

Passing Through Honolulu.

The Chitoy Maru, arriving here early in October, will bring among its passengers a party of well known society folk from Los Angeles, who are on their way to the Orient. A clipping from the Los Angeles Times says:

"A splendid trip to the Orient has been planned by the following well-known Angelenos, who have booked passage on the new Japanese liner, Chitoy Maru, from San Francisco: Col. and Mrs. Frank Green, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Layton, Rev. and Mrs. A. A. Pratt, Mrs. Edna F. Lowe, Miss Catherine Arthurs, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Kohler, Rev. J. Simon, Rev. G. G. Griebel, Dr. and Mrs. J. S. Spence, Dr. and Mrs. N. Bercovitz and Mrs. D. F. Robertson. After visiting the Coronation Durbar at Kyoto, Japan, the party will proceed to the Philippines, and China, returning home via Man churia, Korea and Japan."

Mrs. Montague Cooke Leaves for the Mainland.

En route to California and the East, Mrs. Montague Cooke was among the passengers to leave for the mainland in the Matsonia last Wednesday. Laden with brightly colored leis, gifts of her many friends, Mrs. Cooke left for the coast with the expectation of remaining there until the first of the year.

Those familiar with the sentiment of the Hawaiian noticed with pleasure that Mrs. Cooke sailed from the islands wearing every one of her floral gifts. For years it has been the custom of the stranger visiting Hawaii to throw the leis back to friends on the dock; the Hawaiians, however, keep those last gifts until the ship's officers order all perishable blossoms into the ocean. No haole has been able to give the reason for the Hawaiians keeping their gift unless perhaps it is because they consider it quite as much a breach of etiquette to return a flower as to return a more substantial gift.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Gay to Return.

After an absence of several months Mr. and Mrs. Francis Gay are expected home in the Wilhelmina next week. Mr. and Mrs. Gay have been entertained extensively on the mainland.

Mrs. Gay has often been mentioned in the San Francisco papers as one of the most handsomely groomed women partaking in the social affairs of the city.

Mrs. Charles S. Bromwell, wife of Col. Bromwell, a charming society matron who left in the Matsonia on Wednesday for an extended visit in the East.

En Route to Honolulu.

Mrs. Turner Elmer Weatherholt, one of the best known of the society women in Los Angeles, is en route to Honolulu in the Wilhelmina, which will arrive here next Tuesday. Mrs. Weatherholt is a leader in the social affairs of the southern metropolis and prior to her departure for the islands was entered at a number of smart affairs. From the Los Angeles Times comes word of Mrs. Weatherholt's intended trip to the islands:

"To Mrs. Turner Elmer Weatherholt, upon her return to this city from an extended cruise to the Hawaiian Islands, will fall the honor of presiding as hostess at the first important social function of the fall season."

In honor of Mrs. Robert William Vernon of Dallas, Mrs. Weatherholt and Mrs. Harry Chapman Williams, both of the Bryson apartments, and two extremely handsome young matrons, will entertain with a ball of a character so elaborate that preparations for it are already under way. Invitations will be sent to life guests for the function, which is to be held in the ballroom of the Bryson. Mrs. G. Alexander Bobrick and Mrs. Donald Keeler will assist Mrs. Weatherholt and Mrs. Williams.

Mrs. Vernon will reach Los Angeles from her Texas home on the same day that Mrs. Weatherholt and her party return to this city from Honolulu. Mr. and Mrs. Weatherholt and their friends are leaving today for San Francisco to join eastern friends and visit the Jewel City until the 22nd inst., when they will embark on the Wilhelmina for their cruise to the islands.

Mrs. Weatherholt gave a farewell luncheon to a coterie of friends and fellow-members of the 'Palms Club' at the Nat Goodwin cafe at the beach recently, the ladies enjoying a swim in the surf during the afternoon.

"The past week has witnessed many lovely farewell functions given in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Weatherholt, Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Ranger giving the most elaborate—a dancing party attended by nearly one hundred guests. Sharing honors were Mrs. Samuel S. Pingree of St. Louis and the latter's winsome debutante daughter, Miss Grace Pingree, who were here briefly, en route to Glenwood Mission Inn, where they went the day following the party. The Pingrees and Rangers formed a warm friendship in Paris last year."

Charming Visitors in Honolulu.

For a few weeks Honolulu is to entertain two very charming mainland girls who are to remain in Honolulu some time before sailing for the Orient, where they will witness the Cherry Blossom Festival. They arrived on the Lurline. From Los Angeles comes the following word of Miss Gladys Lee Holland and Miss Irma Mackenzie:

"Miss Gladys Lee Holland of Rampart boulevard, with her stunning house-guest, Miss Irma P. McKenzie of Boston, left Wednesday for San Francisco—the first stage of a very delightful trip which will take them to the Hawaiian Islands and later the Orient. The young ladies are sailing Tuesday on the Lurline for Honolulu, where they are to be house-guests of Miss Holland's sister, Mrs. William Seaman, wife of Lieut. Comdr. Seaman, who is in charge of the Pearl Harbor naval station. They are to be much feted in army and naval circles. They are to witness the cherry blossom festival in Japan and extensively tour the East."

"Miss McKenzie's father is a noted physician of Boston, where the family is prominent. She is a pronounced beauty of the brunette type, and in her eastern home has taken active part in private theatricals and the smart set's festivities. It was in Boston, in fact, that the two girls became such intimate chums. Miss Holland making her debut there. The latter was born and bred in the eastern city of culture, coming with her family to our own sunny Southland but last November, but in that short time has become very popular with a large circle of friends. She is a wonderful swimmer and will find the Honolulu beach a strong attraction. The young ladies are to stay away until December. They are enjoying a round of gossamer in the north, incidental to 'exposition'ing."

Memorial for Mrs. Wilson.

WINSTON SALEM, N. C., Sept. 4.—Mrs. R. J. Reynolds, state president for North Carolina of the Ellen Wilson Memorial, is making plans for the organization of committees of leading women of the state for the purpose of raising funds for the permanent memorial to the wife of President Wilson, the education of mountain youth. It is hoped to have the movement indorsed by the State Federation of Women's Clubs, the Daughters of the American Revolution, the United Daughters of the Confederacy, the Colonial Dames, church societies and other social and patriotic orders of women.

The movement of the memorial, although it originated in the South, is national in its scope, and it is expected that soon women all over the country will be working for it and will make it a great national enterprise.—Washington Post.

Miss Helen Dewey Entertained.

Miss Helen Dewey, who is spending some time in Honolulu after a visit to the exposition, was on Thursday the seventeenth the guest of Civil Engineer and Mrs. Parks at their home at the naval station, Pearl Harbor.

After luncheon the party, escorted by Civil Engineers Parks, Smith and Burrell, enjoyed a boating trip through the beautiful Pearl lagoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Cartwright Entertain Informally.

One of the delightfully informal affairs which closed the social activities of last week was the dance given by Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Cartwright. The guests danced on the lanais at the Cartwright's attractive home, and later in the evening refreshments were served. Among those present were Miss Abbie Buchanan, Miss Marion Chapin, Lieut. and Mrs. "Tod" Sloan, Miss Edith Williams, Mr. Cannon, Al-paki Smith, Mr. Friedman, Lieut. Albert Lyman, Bob Purvis and Mr. and Mrs. Cartwright.

Complimenting Henrietta Schwartz. Miss Henrietta Schwartz was the complimented guest at a delightfully informal tea given by Miss Myrtle Schuman at her home on Keeaumoku street on Tuesday, the day before Miss Schwartz's departure for the coast in the Matsonia. The tea room was daintily decorated with ferns and cut flowers. Miss Schuman's guests included Miss Henrietta Schwartz, Miss Marie Ballentine, Miss Marion Chapin, Miss Florence Hoffman, Miss W. W. Richards, Miss Laura Atherton, Miss Hazel Buckland, Miss Geraldine Berg, Miss Dorothy Guild, Miss Helen MacLean, Mrs. Reynolds McGrew and others.

Capt. and Mrs. Cochran Entertain.

Capt. and Mrs. W. B. Cochran were host and hostess at a charming dinner party on Friday evening when they entertained for a few members of the service set. An attractive arrangement of flowers and ferns ornamented the center of the table at which covers were laid for Maj. and Mrs. Michael Lenihan, Mrs. Randolph, Capt. and Mrs. John Randolph, Capt. and Mrs. George Jamerson, Col. and Mrs. B. W. Atkinson, Mr. Bayard Randolph and Capt. and Mrs. Cochran.

Fashion's Requirements

Gives that peerly white complexion so much desired by the Women of Fashion.

At Druggists and Department Stores

Gouraud's Oriental Cream

We will send a complexion chamol and book of powder leaves for 15c. to cover cost of mailing and wrapping.

FERD. T. HOPKINS & SON, Proprietors, 27 Great Jones St., New York City